GOOD STREETS TO BERKELEY ARE DEMANDED

Citizens Ask Council to Take Action in Matter.

Many Reasons Given Why Improvements Should be Made.

The question of improving the streets had been the chief in Berkeley occupied the attention of the Street Committee of the City Council for some time last evening.
Wilbur Walker, who appeared on behalf of the Merchants' Exchange and the Board of Trade, said that there was no legal objections to levying assessments by districts for the improvement of streets. He thought this a just method of defraying the expense. He did not consider that it would be fair to tax the improvement of streets benefitting property other than his own. Mr. Walker hoped that there would be at least one good road to Berkeley before winter came on. Enough experiments had been had with bad roads last winter.

Captain Morrison of the Berkeley Board of Trustees said that the ground had been very well covered by Mr. Walker.
He thought that the street should be at least one good street to Berkeley. Shattuck avenue seemed to be the best for the purpose. There seemed to be little opposition to the district plan of assessment.

Mr. Caldwell said he thought there was more travel on Adeline street than any other.

E. O. Turner said he would like to see both Adeline street and Shattuck avenue improved.

Wilbur Walker said that it was almost impossible to travel to Berkeley last winter.

It would be a shame to have the same thing next winter.

Craig Sharp said that work should be continued on the street at least. Other-ers could be improved later.

H. A. Snider spoke in favor of improving Telegraph and San Pablo avenues, which he contended were the main thoroughfares of Berkeley.

Peter Clegg said Shattuck avenue had twenty teams an hour more than any other thoroughfare leading to Berkeley.

If the district had to pay for the improvement of the street the work would not be done.

It would be better to do it again. It was not right to tax the citizens of the district for so much expense. If an attempt was made to make the district pay the expense, the city should be taxed. The city should pay its share by bonds.

Trustee A. R. Frame of Berkeley said he had never met with any particular objection to improving the streets on the part of the city.

Berkeley and Oakland were growing fast and should be taxed in the improvement of streets. College avenue made one of the prettiest drives that could be found in the State. He hoped that Alameda would stand in with Berkeley in improving their streets.

Mayor Snow said if any protest had been received from parties in which districts overlapped.

Mr. Porter replied that there had not been any.

Mr. Porter suggested that people would not know that they were in overlapping districts until the bills came in.

E. O. Turner said that Mr. Porter must be well informed of the district plan as he owned about 500 acres of land.

This, however, could not be urged against a public utility.

Mott said that the streets were not well built and had frontages on them so much as by the government.

It had been proposed that the city and the property owner combine to stand the cost of substantial macadamizing. Some time should be done soon in the matter.

Chairman Mott said that the matter would be taken under advisement and a report made in the near future. That ended the discussion.

DOCTORS DISPUTE OVER A CASE OF SMALLPOX.

Haywards, June 29.—The isolated cases of smallpox which have occurred in Haywards and Alameda have been the cause of considerable dispute between the health officers of the two towns. Dr. Reynolds, the Health Officer at Haywards, claims that the disease is not of the disease which appeared here was the result of a visit which the patient had made to Alameda.

Miss Gould must have caught the smallpox from him, said Dr. Reynolds in speaking of the patient. "She has only been away from home twice for some time before she was taken ill. Once she visited Alameda. It was just ten days after her return that she was taken ill, and I am confident that she caught the disease in that place."

The Alameda officials are just as confident that there was no smallpox in that city when Miss Gould first visited it.
They claim that the disease which existed at the time she was taken ill with the disease and forced to return home.

WORK ON OUR
NEW WARSHIPS.

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.—Work on the construction of the sheathed protected cruiser Denver has been begun. Ninety per cent of the material to be used in the cruiser is already directed.

The hull will be sheathed with yellow pine and coppered.

The chief peculiarity is that they will be sheathed with yellow pine and coppered.

The advantage of this construction is that the vessel will not have to be docked so often.

The battleship Alabama, approaching completion in the Cramp's yard, will not be ready to start on her trial trip before August 1st. All of her armor is now in place. The guns are still to be put in place, and until this is done, the turret tops cannot be completed. Officers who will be assigned to the Alabama are anxious to have her completed, in view of the possibility of stirring times ahead in China.

TROUBLE OVER MALT EXTRACT.

Inspector Maloon Says

It is as Bad as Beer.

Owing to a defective ordinance regulating the sale of spirituous and malt liquors, made by License-Inspector Maloon, district attorney, may be allowed to compete with those containing alcohol, without taking out a liquor license, while a grocer, selling the same articles would be compelled to pay for the privilege the same amount as a retail liquor dealer or $10 a barrel.

The present option, according to Mr. Maloon, upon which this discrimination is based,
is that the liquors referred to are sold as medicine in drug stores, while they are really considered as beverages when purchased by groceries.

This stand has been taken by Mr. Maloon upon the attempt of an agent of a certain malt extract to flood the market with the extract referred to would not be allowed to be sold in groceries unless the owners of the stores took out a liquor license. In view of the stand there is no doubt that the malt in question is a beverage because he has had it analyzed by City Chemist Burd, who has reported that the liquor contains 3.5 per cent of alcohol. In this respect, Mr. Maloon had the same chemist analyze a bottle of beer, with the result that standard beverage contained only 4 per cent of alcohol, or slightly less. He also found that the malt extract was 50 per cent alcohol. With such a showing, Mr.
Maloon holds it would be unreasonable to charge a grocer $100 a quart for selling a beverage containing four per cent alcohol when he could sell it without a license, a beverage which contained almost the same amount of alcohol.

Cold Steel Or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life, and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. Lillian Bauer, of Elgin, Ill., W., by her doctor after vainly trying to get rid of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles, but she heard of a tonic she had been taking, which was wholsome, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever.
It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at Osgood Bros'

Explosions addle eggs according to a complaint filed in our Superior Court. This creates the suspicion that benzine is used to start up the breakfast fires at the cheap restaurants hereabouts.

Minister Wu at Washington is as loath to receive his passports as our government is to give them to him, but it looks as if such a course cannot be delayed much longer in view of the reports that the foreign delegations have been ordered to leave Peking. In one way it seems ridiculous for all the powers to declare war with China, but there seems no way out of it in view of the attitude assumed by the Tsung-Li Yamen. Strange that China should have herself invited and brought about the attack civilization has been threatening to make for the past ten years.

A MORAL VACATION.

Some time ago Sacramento, in a spasm of virtue, enacted an ordinance prohibiting pool selling and other forms of gambling. Sacramento had been a wide-open town for so long that gambling had come to be regarded as one of the institutions of the place. After the passage of the anti-pool-selling ordinance the Sacramentoans went about admitting themselves in pier glasses and descanting on the superiority of their town as compared with the wickedness so rife in more abandoned municipalities. In fact, Sacramento revelled in virtue as an unwonted luxury.

But a fly has been found in the ointment. The holy oil is not altogether sweet to the taste. It is coming time to let the privileges for the State Fair, and the gambling privilege is the big thing of the whole outfit. It sells for a great deal of money and is one of the principal sources of revenue for the management. Last year the privilege was sold for over $17,000. Under the new ordinance no pools can be sold, hence the betting privilege cannot be farmed out.

The Directors of the Agricultural Association are now trying to make an arrangement whereby gambling at the race track shall be allowed to go on as before. The proposition is for city authorities to declare an armistice with the pool-sellers during State Fair week, and the clergy are asked to grant plenify indulgence for this temporary lack of virtue. It is claimed that the Fair will be a failure without pool selling and book making. Naturally Sacramento is deeply stirred over such a dire possibility. "What?" the good people of that town exclaim. "Because we are virtuous shall there be no more cakes and ale?" Having shown their good faith in the matter of suppressing gambling they think it only fair that a short open season for the tiger should be declared. If they can't have a little sport with "keards and quarter horses" what's the use of being good? They don't believe in all the pleasures—and the profits, as well-being left to the unregenerate.

So Sacramento is preparing for a temporary lapse into the slough of wickedness from which she has so recently emerged. But this is not to be taken as backsliding into sinful ways. It is only a little indulgence taken as a reward of merit. Those who sport around the betting stands from a sense of public duty, to preserve a cherished institution from ruin, are not to be classed with the unrighteous and sorid persons who buck the tiger in the hope of winning the shekels. What good men do from a sense of public duty should not be confounded with the acts of the sinful who wage their money in the wicked hope of winning the other fellow's stuff. We trust that our Sacramento neighbors will not be misunderstood in this thing, and that no ribald remarks will be made by worldly minded scoffers touching the genuineness of the moral wave that has swept over their town. It is painful to have the motives of the truly good questioned.

Those who sport around the betting stands from a sense of public duty, to preserve a cherished institution from ruin, are not to be classed with the unrighteous and sorid persons who buck the tiger in the hope of winning the shekels. What good men do from a sense of public duty should not be confounded with the acts of the sinful who wage their money in the wicked hope of winning the other fellow's stuff. We trust that our Sacramento neighbors will not be misunderstood in this thing, and that no ribald remarks will be made by worldly minded scoffers touching the genuineness of the moral wave that has swept over their town. It is painful to have the motives of the truly good questioned.

Temporary lapse into the slough of wickedness from which she has so recently emerged.

It is only a little indulgence taken as a reward of merit.

"Improve the City"

this is now the cry of all good citizens. Nothing makes a city look more attractive and prosperous than well-dressed ladies and children on its streets. By taking advantage of our top qualities and bottom prices you can at once become a civic improver.

A Rattle at the Notion Counter Things that cost little, cost a whole lot before the year goes round. It doesn't look as bad to pay three cents for what you might buy for two, as it does to pay $1.50 for what could be bought for a dollar—but it's just as wasteful. Little leaks lose most, for biggest wastes are quietest caught. You will lose nothing on little leaks at our Notion Counter.

DOES DELIVERY FILL CONTRACT?

No Money for Engines Without Test and Acceptance.

City Auditor Breed was asked today whether he would draw a warrant upon the funds of the next fiscal year to pay for the two new fire engines which were contracted for in this fiscal year and he replied:

"The City Attorney has told me that the delivery of the fire engines before the 15th of June, completed the contract between the manufacturers and the city."

"There is a question in my mind, though, or rather, we have not yet made up my mind as to whether the engines are delivered, and if they shall not be tested and accepted until after the 1st of next month, I shall draw a warrant to pay for them out of the money of the next fiscal year, provided that the Council passes an ordinance appropriating the money to pay for them."

"I shall look up whatever decision may be found on the subject. Yes, I understand the engine manufacturers have not yet filed any bills for their engines with the Board of Public Works said: 'No bills for those engines have come before us, and no bills for them could be filed here unless they had first been passed upon and recommended by the Chief Engineer.'

"Chief Ball, in speaking on the subject said:

"No bills for the engines have been approved by me. I have received no bills of the kind to pass upon, and I could not approve of them until after I had time to consider them satisfactorily."

"I think," said Secretary Jackson, "that the engine men will be pleased, on Tuesday next, to accept their money from next year's funds."

At the Great Trustee Shoe Sale tomorrow at 922 Washington Street men's shoes go at 75 cents per pair, evenly worth $2.00. Bring the children and get a package of fireworks free with every purchase.

The British Admiralty is doing little, but has contrived to report that Tien Tsin was shelled for five days with little loss and that Admiral Seymour had an armistice with the rebels and was hard pressed while he was trying to withdraw.

This measure, explained, was added in Parliament an additional detail that the Viceroy at Nanking had telegraphed to the British Consul General at Tientsin to inform the foreign legations in Peking to postpone their protection from the Imperial government.

METCALF MEETS ALAMEDA VOTERS.

Congressman Makes an Address and is Given a Hearty Ovation.

The Metcalf Club of Alameda, formed for the purpose of furthering the interests of Hon. Victor H. Metcalf of this city as a candidate for Congress to succeed himself from the Third Congressional District, held a rousing meeting last night in Linderman's Hall, which may be termed the most successful gathering of the kind which has taken place for a long time in Alameda. The hall was packed with people. Standing room had to be utilized, and the overflow filled the spacious ante-rooms. In the assemblage business men, professional men, mechanics and the humbler sons of toil were represented. All seemed to be imbued with one purpose, and that was to give intelligent and honest evidence of appreciation of the efforts of Mr. Metcalf as a Congressman and to encourage him in his laudable aspiration to return to the national halls of legislation. There was no brass band present. There had been no defeat advertising of the event. Only a simple announcement of the gathering had been made. The devotion and loyalty of the people did the rest.

MR. METCALF GREETED.

When Mr. Metcalf was introduced he was received with cheers. Several minutes elapsed before the greeting of the assemblage subsided, despite the fact that Mr. Metcalf sought to have the demonstration in his favor of as modest a character as possible. His wishes, however, in this respect were disregarded, and it was only when those present saw fit to bring their greeting to a close that the Congressman was able to enter upon his discussion of the topics of the hour.

It was apparent that this welcome had behind it more than the stimulus of manufactured enthusiasm. It was inspired by an appreciation of the man, of the excellent work he had done during one session of Congress, of the advantages he had secured for all the leading manufacturing and commercial centers in the Third Congressional District and in a special manner the success which had attended his efforts in securing beyond the per-adventure of a doubt the speedy completion of the tidal canal, for which Alameda has for years sought in vain at the hands of Mr. Metcalf's predecessors in Congress.

CALLED TO ORDER.

The meeting was called to order by Col. George Babcock, the president of the Metcalf Club of Alameda. In an informal manner the Colonel announced that, eliminating from the roll of the organization those who had died or moved away, there were still on the list of the club 39 names.

The president also announced that any person present who had not already got his name on the Great Register, Dr. C. L. Tisdale announced that there were several other people present who could and would take a hand in registering voters and thus divide the work with the secretary.

E. K. TAYLOR.

Colonel Babcock then called upon Senator E. K. Taylor, who is City Attorney of Alameda, to make a few remarks.

Some of the audience used the word "prayer" as the president made use of the words "a few remarks."

Mr. Taylor stated as the interpellation struck his ear and said:

"There is no need for prayer at a Republican meeting now. (Cheers). There was a time when it was customary to open a Republican meeting with prayer, but that is not necessary any more. The Republican party has placed William McKinley and Governor Roosevelt in nomination and that means that they will be elected by the votes of the Republican people of the Nation. (Applause.)

"We ought, tonight, to offer up thanks that such great and worthy men as McKinley and Roosevelt have been chosen to march the Republican column and lead us to a glorious victory.

"We are to be confronted with new issues—issues which are intended to blind the people by those who originated them. But the American workmen and the American mechanic are intelligent men. They reason and think for themselves. They can not be carried away by false doctrines to worship false gods. Free silver is a relic of the past and I, for one, hope never to see it resurrected. The growth of the country has been such as to challenge the civilized world. The growth and prosperity of the country depend upon the Protective tariff.

"The Republican party who have been howling calamity throughout the land, but their prophecies have never been realized. We don't hear the 46-to-4 or other Democratic issues discussed. They are dead issues, and now these orators throw against us imperialism. The Republican—National Convention demanded that by the nomination of Mr. McKinley and Governor Roosevelt. We are not afraid of imperialism. We are proud of the army and the navy and their work, and we are glad that they have been able to hold their own in representing us among the armies and navies of the other nations of the earth in the present Chinese trouble.

GEOGRAPHICAL CENTER.
The geographical center of the United States is now the city of San Francisco.
